WFF2009: Fox Searchlight Caps Ticket Sales for "500 Days of Summer"

Dane101 has been following the "sold out" shows for the Wisconsin Film Festival and we have a new one for you...sort of... Fox Searchlight has asked the festival to cap remaining sales for 500 Days of Summer. The film, showing at the 1700 capacity Orpheum Theatre, had already moved roughly 1000 tickets according to festival director Meg Hamel (via Twitter). I guess Fox is concerned about generating too much buzz around the sure fire quirky romantic comedy starring Joseph Gordon-Levitt and Zooey Deschanel? The Sundance Film Festival hit is set for wide release on July 17 of this year, so if you miss it this time around our money is on it returning this summer. The movie was directed by Madisonian Marc Webb who will be on hand to answer questions after the screening.
